WHEN BABY HAS THE CROUP.

When a mother is awakened from sound sleep to find her child who has gone to bed apparently the best of health struggling for breath, she is naturally alarmed. Yet if she can keep her presence of mind and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy every ten minutes until vomiting is produced, quick relief will follow and the child will drop to sleep to awaken in the morning as well as ever. This remedy has been in use for many years with uniform success. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv. d&w

NOT ALTERED BY SUFFRAGE

Writer's Testimony Is That Scandinavian Women Have Proved Their Right to It.

An old story much believed was that Charles XII of Sweden was a woman. He wasn't; but if Scandinavian women showed the capacity for public affairs in his day that they are showing now it was not surprising that even military genius was ascribed to a woman.

All those old viking countries of the North are today further advanced in woman's rights than any other countries. Norway, Denmark and Finland and Iceland have practically equal political and industrial rights of men and women. Sweden's promised law for that equality has been held back only because the critical conditions the great war has produced have "subordinated every other question." And Sweden was the first country or state where the municipal vote was given to women.

Mabel Petter Daggett writes in the Pictorial Review that these free women of the North, as she calls them, are as good housewives and as capable and womanly mothers and wives as they ever were or as can be found anywhere. These women, who have elected members of national parliaments and of town councils, whose industrial and economic councils and clubs and organizations have as effective a voice as those of men—these women have sunk none of their feminine values in their values as feminists.

In tradition and history the mother and wives and daughters of the ancient Northmen shared the hardships and the daring, and shared the heroic virtues of the men. It is not a violent change that in an age of different actions and perplexities they should assume their different share and retain their corresponding virtues.—Kansas City Star.

MINE IS TOMB OF PRINCESS

Results of Excavations on Mound Containing Remains of Nacoochee.

Dr. L. G. Hardman went up to his Nacoochee valley farm recently to superintend the work preparatory to the excavation of an Indian mound which possesses an interesting history.

There, the Atlanta Journal states, Nacoochee, an Indian princess, was buried, and tradition holds a fascinating romance connected with her life and death.

Archeologists, representing a New York museum, will excavate the mound in order to make a scientific study of the lives of the race which once inhabited that section of the country in the years ago.

The utensils used, their war paraphernalia, and even the skeletons of the peoples buried there, will afford interesting research work.

All the interesting excavations will be carried to the New York museum, and the mound will be rebuilt just as it stands today.

Gems Galore.

The diamond and jewelry manufacturers of New York are going to move all their cracked ice and baubles up to the Grand Central Palace this week and have a regular million dollar show. Dips and other light-fingered gentry will be pleased to hear this announcement, but the jewelers are not worrying. There will be a gum shoe man behind every exhibit. The term "million dollar show" is merely a figure of speech. The exhibit will be worth in actual value, many millions of dollars. According to the present plans there will be about every kind of jewelry exhibited—diamonds, rubies, sapphires, rings, necklaces and—wrist watches for men. With the aid of 2,000 boosters the watchmakers declare they are going to make the wrist watch a craze for the male gender. They predict in a short time every mother's son, from the cop who pounds the pave to the grocery boy, will be wearing the time on their wrists.—New York correspondent of the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Motion Pictures.

It is estimated by prominent motion picture producers that over $275,000,000 are being spent annually by the people of the United States for the production and maintenance of moving picture enterprises throughout the country. Few people realize that the ordinary feature film which provides the evening's entertainment costs between $15,000 and $30,000 to produce. Aside from the money actually spent on admissions to the shows all over the country, the greater part of the capital used in connection with the moving picture industry is that tied up by the producers of the embryo features. Over $120,000,000 are tied up in the apparatus and property of the giant syndicates.—World's Advance.

"Freshness" Rebuked.

Mr. Allen Aynesworth, who is winning fresh laurels in the revival of "Ready Money," has a pretty wit. It is said that Mr. Aynesworth met, at the rehearsal of a new piece, a youth who was giving himself many airs on the strength of his first engagement in London. "These rehearsals are a beastly fog," the young man was good enough to observe, "but thank goodness I know my words."

"Both of them?" asked Aynesworth.

The Colds of Mankind

Have you ever gone through a typical pine forest when you had a cold? What a vigorous impulse it sent! How you opened wide your lungs to take in those invigorating and mysterious qualities. Yes, Dr. Bell
